Which said bills were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The hour having arrived for taking up the orders of the day, the house proceeded to the consideration of the first order of the day, being the report of the committee of the whole house, recommending the rejection of the bill reported by Mr. Teackle, chairman of the select committee, entitled, an act to establish the Real Estate Bank of the State of Maryland, and the substitute offered by Mr. Pratt, for said report, being a bill, entitled, an act to establish the Real Estate Bank of the State of Maryland,

Mr. Pratt, moved to amend said substitute, by adding at the end of the first section thereof, the following,

Provided that not more than one fifth of the said bonds shall be negotiated in any one year, and provided also, that the Legislature may at any future session, prohibit the further negotiation of said bonds, and shall at all times have full power to legislate upon the subject of the bank hereby incorporated.

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Spence, said substitute was further amended, by striking out in the 22nd. section, seventh line, the word "ten," and inserting in lieu thereof "six,"

On motion of Mr. Teackle, said section was further amended, by adding at the end thereof the following,

"And all the privileges allowed to any original borrower or mortgagee shall be extended to the successor, or the heir, or legal representative thereof,"

The said substitute was then read the second time as amended,
